RE: My Unavailability due to Medical Emergency 04 cv 7281 (RCC)

Dear Judge Casey:

I am in no means attempting to disregard your outline instructions for submissions. However, at this time, I am unable to talk due to medical emergency. I was eating and my tooth filling came out. The pain medication has me feeling woozy and out of sorts. This is my best method of response letter via fax. I don't think anyone would understand what I am trying to say.

As, I understand no decision has been rendered regarding my request for and extension of time. While this is being determined I wanted to inform your office, I will be unavailable due to medical emergency. If you want to physically speak with someone to leave a message. You can reach Rosemary Dillard at 1-703-931-9110. She is my emergency point of contact.

Respectfully,

April D. Gallop
